THE OCTOBER ELECTION.

Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, West Virginia and Nebraska.

Statistics of Votes of Previous Years.

From the New York Herald, 8th inst.]

Five States hold general elections this month, viz: Nebraska, (incorrectly set down for the 6th,) Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana on the 13th of October, and West Virginia on the 22d.

NEBRASKA.

This State was admitted in June, 1866 and there has been no general election in the State since that year, when a Republican Governor (Butler) was chosen by 145 majority, receiving 4093 votes against 3948 for Morton, Democrat.

PENNSYLVANIA.

The highest vote cast in Pensylvania was 587,370, at the October election in 1866, when John W. Geary was elected Governor over Heister Clymer by a majority of 17,178. In 1867 Sharswood, Democrat, was elected Judge of the Supreme Court by 922 majority in a total vote 62,800 less than that cast in 1866. The vote of the State during the last seven years is as follows:

	Rep.	Dem.	Maj.	Total.
1860, Oct	262,803	230,239	32,164	493,042

1867	280,324	267,746	922	834,070

This includes the total opposition vote, which comprises 1676 of the separate Douglas vote, and 12,776 for Bell.

OHIO.

During the last eight years Ohio has given Republican majorities—the highest in 1863, when Brough, for Governor, had 61,920 on the home vote and 39,179 on the soldiers', or 101,099 in total. In 1867 R. B. Hayes, Republican, was elected Governor by 2983 majority. The following is the vote of the State since 1860:

*This includes 5206 for Bell, 12,295 for Breckinridge, and 115,509 for Douglas. Lincoln over Douglas, 25,324; Lincoln over all, 5293.

The last Legislature re-districted the State and changed the boundaries of each Congressional district, with the exception of the old Eighth, which is now known as the Tenth. The vote in 1866 of the counties which now compose the districts, the residence and politics of the present members (Democrats in Italics) are as follows:

CONGRESSIONAL EXCURSION.

Circular from the Executive Committee.

We lay before our readers the following circular which we have received from the Congressional Excursion Executive Committee, without comment. It is unnecessary for us to enlarge upon the advantages which might accrue to Memphis from this excursion; we have alluded to subject and enumerated some of them more than once heretofore. It is of the utmost importance to the enterprise that we return an early response to the circular of the committee, and we hope that some definite action be taken immediately. So far as the APPEAL is concerned, we go for it with our whole heart:

CONGRESSIONAL EXCURSION.
C. SMITHER'S ROOMS,
CINCINNATI, September 29, 1868.

The presence of serious obstructions and impediments to the free navigation of our Western rivers has been so long felt and suffered from, that it has ceased to be a virtue to endure their continued existence silently, or without an energetic effort for their removal. Movements looking to merely local improvements have been made. These not being general, nor sufficiently thorough to enlist the support of the great commercial interests involved, have mostly proved insufficient and inoperative. These obstructions, always a drawback to the commerce of our rivers, have now become a crying evil, ruinous to their prospects, demanding at our hands immediate attention, otherwise the cities and towns on our river banks will become mere railroad way stations, and the navigation of our waters a matter for history. The grave importance of this subject so impressed itself upon the public mind that a convention of delegates from cities and towns on the Ohio and Mississippi rivers was called, and held in this city on September 23d, 1868.

Its object being the discussion of the proper measures to be taken in the premises, it being a foregone conclusion that steps of some kind were imperatively called for.

This Convention held it to be the duty of Congress to furnish the requisite means for the effective prosecution of the desired improvements, and in order to procure from that body the requisite legislation, resolutions were adopted recommending that an excursion by water be organized from Pittsburg to New Orleans and return via St. Louis, to which should be invited the President, Vice President and Cabinet, the members of both houses of Congress, and the editors of the leading papers, whose influence would prove valuable, the design of this excursion being to afford an opportunity to our legislators for the inspection of our rivers, of their obstructions—natural and artificial—and of being brought into personal intercourse with those best informed on the subject, that a free intercourse of ideas might be had, and the influence of the immense commerce of the valleys of the Ohio and Mississippi be effectively employed in the furtherance of the object sought.

It is not our intention to discuss what is desired in particular. Local or sectional advantages are or should be lost sight of in the general good which will be secured by the permanent improvements of the water communication, from the head waters of the Ohio and Mississippi to the Gulf.

The large and rapidly increasing commerce of the West demands that this subject should be urged upon our Representatives until success is achieved, and uninterrupted, safe and cheap transit to the ocean is a reality.

It was decided by the Convention that the excursion should take place soon after the Presidential election—about the 10th of November next—by steamers chartered for the purpose, and the undersigned were named a committee to have in charge all business appertaining thereto, with instructions to apportion the amount of financial aid required by an assessment upon the cities and towns interested, such assessment to be based upon their well known river interests.

After careful consideration we have fixed the amount expected from your city at $3000, and request that you will procure prompt and decisive action from your authorities, in the matter, and advise our Chairman of their decision on or before the 10th of October, 1868, either by mail or telegraph, that we may be enabled to report intelligently on the importans question of means to carry out this project, to a convention of delegates from contributing places, to be hereafter called by this committee. Any surplus remaining, above actual wants, will be returned in proportion to the amount contributed. We rely upon the importance of the subject we present, rather than upon the manner of its presentation, for attention and aid at your hands, which, if vouchsafed, will materially assist in making the excursion a success, and it, in its turn, will supply us with an occasion to influence those with whom the duty rests to render our internal navigation free to the Ocean.

Please forward names of the gentlemen of the press for whom you desire invitations.

A. P. C. BONTE, Chairman.

JOHN C. RENO,

GEORGE L. JOHNSTON,

WELL BORING.

WATER! WATER!
WELL BORING.

HAVING purchased the right for Tennessee, of Heath & Co's Patent Well Borer, we offer for sale a few County Rights, and also to bore wells on the shortest notice. This invention is pronounced by all practical men who have seen it, and those who have used it as unrivalled for the purpose designed. The Well can be bored in little more than one half the time and accident to bore and durable, that it may be located anywhere desired. We are prepared to show specimen Wells and the whole apparatus to parties desiring to see them. We have indisputable testimonials of the superiority and cheapness of these Wells over all others known. From fifteen to twenty dollars per day can be made by any intelligent working man with the use of this invention. A sum of five or six persons wanting Wells can buy a County Right for what a well would cost them, and work it to great profit for others. For such, opportunities are ever offered for investing a few hundred dollars to advantage.

Pratt's Southern Made Cotton Gin

THIS GIN is regarded by planters who have used it, as the best for sample, picking the seed clean and light draught. Planters cultivating bottom lands are requested to examine the Eureka Gin at Harrington & Howell's, Front street. It will pay for itself in ginning fifty bales. A. N. Gunnison, manufacturer of the Seed Comb Gin before the war but now a planter, gives the following certificate:

"MEMPHIS, TENN., January 31, 1868.

"I take pleasure in recommending to planters cultivating Cotton on bottom lands of the Mississippi, Arkansas, White and St. Francis rivers, the Eureka Gin, made by Daniel Pratt, of Alabama. This gin separates the hulls, bolls, etc., from the Seed Cotton, makes a good sample, and is superior to any other Gin for bottom lands. I have used one myself on a farm in Washington county, Miss., and it operates well and gives entire satisfaction in every respect. A. N. GUNNISON."

Orders for Gins, from 40 to 80 Saws and Gum Belting, at Factory Prices, addressed to the care of FARRINGTON & HOWELL, 268 Front street, Memphis, promptly filled. Presses and Gearing put up, and Gins repaired by a skilful Gin-wright.

CUBA—ANNEXATION.

The sudden and startling revolution in Spain, and its apparent success in the overthrow of the Bourbon dynasty (if the flight of Isabella can be considered decisive of that result), doubtless awaken the liveliest hopes and expectations in that large class of the Cuban, and even the Spanish-Cuban population of the Island, whose discontent with Spanish rule has for years awaited its opportunity. The telegraphic intelligence from Madrid, published yesterday morning, will greatly encourage the hopes and add to the boldness of this party, and important events in Cuba may be looked for at an early day.

The Spanish Junta, in whom now resides the ruling power, offer to guarantee to the people a free form of government—much more free than that which we of these Southern States now enjoy, or rather endure. Civil and religious liberty, equality of all men before the law (a phrase evidently borrowed from our original Abolitionists), freedom of speech and of the press, and even universal suffrage, are held out as inducements to a united support in the establishment of some new form of government. The form of that government will, after all, be decided by the will of the Cortes, a convocation of the clergy and nobles of the kingdom, unless some foreign power should interfere. Upon a portion of the population of Cuba these offers will doubtless have the effect intended, and make them partisans of the revolution. But the class who have always favored a separation of the Island from the dominion of Spain will hardly be willing to accept these doubtful promises and forego this seeming opportunity of accomplishing their dream of Cuban independence.

The unsettled condition of affairs has awakened in the minds of some of the old filibusters fresh hopes of the acquisition of the Island, and the old talk about annexation has revived in some quarters. So far as our information goes, Cuba cannot become a part of the United States with the consent of any considerable class of its present population, unless the negroes are to have a voice in the matter. To say that almost universally among the Cubans the estimate of American character is highly unfavorable, would be to interpret very mildly the distrust and hatred they entertain for a nation which they believe to be made up of Abolitionists, land-thieves, filibusters and desperadoes. It was only the crazy ambition of LOPEZ which caused him to overlook this fact, and seek aid for his scheme to overthrow the Spanish authorities among those whom even the native Cubans regarded as their most dangerous enemies; and before the iron collar of the garote crushed his neck, he penitently confessed this fatal error and implored forgiveness of Heaven for the blood he had thus caused to be shed. His followers, soon after landing upon the island, and after a few sharp engagements with the Spanish troops, gave over all attempts to preserve organization, because they saw that the promises of aid from the people were not to be fulfilled; but that, on the contrary, their bitterest foes were the native Cubans, who hunted them down and mercilessly murdered them wherever found, in field and thicket and highway. These unfortunate men, who had constituted themselves the champions of Cuban independence, and had shown undaunted bravery in several encounters with the Spanish troops, were thus helplessly slaughtered in scores by the very creatures they had sought to free from the shackles of tyranny. If any further evidence were needed of the hatred for Americans entertained by both Spaniards and Cubans, it was furnished in the savage temper displayed by the howling mongrel mob which thronged the streets of Havana in thousands when Crittenden and Kerr, and their brave comrades, were led out to execution.

Cuba will never belong to the United States with the consent of its present population. Such an event as its acquisition would be immediately followed by emancipation of the slaves, which would place the Island at the mercy of the mulattoes and negroes, who outnumber the whites more than six to one. The latter might get such protection from Federal bayonets as we of the South get, and might be permitted to defend themselves against Northern carpet-baggers and negro savagery to about the same extent that is accorded us. But their case would be worse than ours. Annexation can be effected only by purchase from the ruling power of Spain, or by armed conquest. It is not impossible that the former may be accomplished at some future time, but should the latter be attempted, probably France or England, or both, may have something to say about it.

THE CONGRESSIONAL EXCURSION.

EDITORS Memphis Appeal:

Regretting with y urself the action taken by our board of Mayor and Aldermen, in connection with the Congressional Committee, which are expected to visit us early in November, in the interest of commerce, of agriculture, and of enlightened progress; and feeling the vital importance to our city of encouraging and supporting at far as we may be able, the purposes of their visit, we have determined to appeal personally to every man interested in building up our city, to help us in getting up a "citizens entertainment," upon their arrival here, which shall honor our public spirit and evince such sympathy in the great cause of internal improvement as cannot fail to impress said committee with our deep interest in their mission. All persons, therefore, willing to aid in getting up such entertainment, are respectfully requested to leave their names at my office 269 Main street. It is suggested, in addition, that there should also be appointed a Citizen's Committee to visit Cincinnati in conjunction with the Aldermanic Committee, for the purpose of arranging details of the enterprise. Your cooperation is earnestly invited.

Very respectfully, etc.,
WM. R. MOORE.

We agree with our correspondent that our citizens should take hold of this matter. Some may and will object on the score of the reported failure of a certain committee that traveled from Washington to New Orleans, and calling at Memphis, was sumptuously and courteously, not to say enthusiastically treated by our citizens. And as that failed, many reason, so will this. But did that feasting and hospitality fail? As we understand it, that excursion was organized for the purpose of securing the personal attention of prominent and influential members of Congress to the fact that if time was granted, as asked for, the railroads of the South would be able to relieve themselves of the then due debt to the Government, for which many extra-officious partisans desired they should at the time be sold; quite a number of New York and Boston capitalists standing ready to purchase. This threatened peremptory sale was postponed. The roads, as their Presidents promised, passed the crisis, paid in full or in part, the debt for equipment and iron, and, remaining in the hands of their original proprietors and projectors, have accomplished the object for which they were constructed—the benefit of the people and the country through which they pass.

In this case we are asked to co-operate with other cities of the Mississippi valley, all of whom have accepted the drafts made upon them, and paid their assessments. They understand that it is upon payment of this quota that they participate and become parties, as hosts, in the entertainment of the excursion party. Failing to pay the $3000, what business have we with a representation at Cincinnati. How will our esteemed citizens, Judge WRIGHT and Gen. RUFFIN, feel, as representatives of a city of 60,000 souls, handling every year more than $20,000,000 worth of cotton, and taxed on $32,000,000 worth of property, and selling as many million dollars more of merchandise, asking a share of the benefits to be derived from the investigations of the excursionists, yet confessing itself so poverty-stricken that it cannot afford to pay the paltry sum of $3000—a sum, twice-told, spent in luxuries every year by our opulent merchants? How will these reputable and intelligent citizens feel in company with their fellow-representatives from New Orleans, where, without debate, the sum of $10,000 was voted and paid promptly?

Our pride demands that our representatives shall be the peers of those before whom they represent Memphis; or that we should not have any participation in the excursion. Either way will suit us. But one way or the other.

RIOT AND MURDER.

We have been appealed to time and again not to publish the statements that come to us, and for which we find room, authenticating the disposition of the negroes, by Radical instigation, to engage in murderous outrages and barbarous massacre. The Camilla riot had scarce died out from the recollection of our readers when we were called upon to chronicle that in St. Landry parish, Louisiana, arising from causes similar to those inducing the awful scene in Georgia, and launching more than twenty human beings into eternity. On the 5th inst., at Crooked-Creek Church, Carroll county, Arkansas, a number of Radicals raised a row on the Sabbath. Knowing that the Conservatives were all unarmed, they fired into the crowd, killing one man dead upon the spot and wounding three others, of whom two have since died; the other it is supposed, will recover. This was done by men that claim to belong to the Carroll county militia, and who are going to enforce the civil law.

On our local page this morning will be found two or three reports that picture what we of Memphis might expect, were it not that there is a well grounded belief among the black as well as white Radicals that any attempt at riot here will be summarily suppressed, and in a way that will serve as an example for all time to come. We hope that sober reasoff will direct and control the Radical party of this country, and that such confessions as Mr. ALEXANDER'S attempted murderer makes will be the last we shall ever hear of Radical conspiracies to murder in Shelby county.

THE PACIFIC RAILROAD.

The address of Messrs. TOPP, TREZEVANT, WICKS, WOODRUFF, GREENLAW, MOORE and ROBERTSON, was received at such an hour on Saturday that we found it impossible to make room for it. Articles of such great length, upon any subject, must either be handed to us at an early hour, or we must be notified so as to give us opportunity for preparing for them. We will make place for this to-morrow.

OUR FINANCES—THE MILITIA.

The Governor has promised not to call out the militia, and Comptroller BLACKBURN (Radical) has conveyed the same assurances to the financiers of New York city. In reporting the result of his interview with the capitalists of that city Mr. BLACKBURN says he found they, one and all, "have the utmost confidence in the ability of the State to meet all her obligations, but they have a moral fear of the militia. They assured him that there is no telling where Tennessee bonds would be quoted in the event of calling out the militia; 'for,' they reason, 'should that measure be adopted, and a million or so of bonds be issued to carry it into effect, the whole thing might be repudiated by a subsequent Legislature of a different temper.' Upon that point the tenderest feelings exist among these gentry. They had no hesitation in giving it as a deliberate opinion that, if it were found necessary to call out the militia, our State bonds would depreciate to a ruinous extent. Everything depends upon peace and harmony, and the confident assurance that peace and harmony will last."

DELAWARE.

From the little State of Delaware, we learn that at the election held on the 6th inst. the Democrats have been triumphant, and have fully vindicated the ancient renown of her people. The Philadelphia Age of the 7th inst. says: In the city of Wilmington the Radical majority was only twenty-two; in September it was 314—showing in less than a month a Democratic gain of 292 votes? Our readers will remember the noise the Radicals made in September, and how they assured the people that the vote in Wilmington was an indication of GRANT'S popularity. What will they say now? On Monday last Connecticut showed her unyielding devotion to the Democratic cause by increasing her majority by thousands, and yesterday "little Delaware" came nobly up to the mark, and showed her disapprobation of the corruptions and infamies of Radicalism.

By Telegraph.

INDIANAPOLIS.

INDIANAPOLIS, October 11.—Last night the white boys in blue were passing a dark alley on their return from a Democratic meeting in the Fourth ward, a shot was fired into the procession from a shot gun loaded with small shot. Five or six of them were severely, but not dangerously wounded.

PENNSYLVANIA.

PHILADELPHIA, October 10.—It is understood that warrants have been issued by the authorities for the arrest of persons who are in Philadelphia arranging for a prize fight, to come off between O'Baldwin and Wormald; also for their aiders, abettors and backers. Officers are on the lookout for them, and a large number are named in warrants.

ST. LOUIS.

ST. LOUIS, October 11.—The Republican demonstration, which was postponed from Wednesday, took place last night, and was a very fine affair. The procession, composed almost wholly of uniformed men, was about 5000 strong, and was forty-three minutes passing a given point. There were over 5000 torches in line. After passing through some of the principal streets, the procession halted at the Central Tannery, where an immense crowd had congregated, and where speeches were made from four stands.

A man named Charles McCann was killed very early yesterday morning by being hit on the head with a rock thrown by some unknown person.

The Excelsior base ball club, of Chicago, won the prize of $500 offered by the Fair Association.

A Little Rock, Ark., special says Marcus Houston was assassinated on the steamer Hesper while lying at the wharf on Thursday night.

Registration has been broken up by the Ku Klux in several counties.

An examination of the books of the Paschall House Association, whose lottery was drawn on Friday, shows that the Paschall House, the Memphis residence and one of the St. Louis residences, all valued at $315,000, were drawn by the Association—they having 33,000 unsold tickets in their possession.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, October 11.—The Internal Revenue Bureau has just issued regulations and instructions concerning tax on distilled spirits, supplemental to those of August last. No distiller's bond can be approved until his distillery warehouse has been provided and established under act of July 6th; and no distillery permitted to start until a storekeeper has been assigned to such warehouse. No deduction will be made upon capacity tax or suspension until the required notices are given to the Assistant Assessor. Any distilling done at night, or any time when the storekeeper is not present, to be prohibited from and after November 1st. Stamps for distilled spirits will be required and used in all cases, as provided by law. The stamps are engraved and bound in book form. The books, tax paid stamps, containing three hundred stamps each, and others four hundred each. Value of books other than those of tax paid stamps one hundred and eight dollars. Each of the books of tax paid stamps range from 1435 to 20,850 dollars, according to the number of gallons represented. Instructions are specific both as to the duties of distillers and Government officers. The Commissioner says the abolition of the office of revenue agents and inspectors throws an increased responsibility upon the local officers of the several districts, and it depends mainly on their action whether or not the provisions of the new law shall be carried out, and illicit distillation repressed, and they will be held to strict accountability for the enforcement of the law in their several districts.

FOREIGN.

MADRID, October 10.—John P. Hale, United States Minister, had a cordial interview with SERRANO, and notified him of his probable recognition by the United States after a lapse of one year.

MADRID, October 11.—The local Junta at Seville, at the request of the United States Consul, has granted permission to the foreign residents to build a Protestant church within the walls of the city.

Don Rivero has been appointed Mayor of Madrid.

All the provinces have formally recognized the authority of the Provisional Junta now in session in this city.

FLORENCE, October 10.—The Italian Government has formally recognized the Juarez government in Mexico.

LONDON, October 11.—Gladstone's address to the Electors of South Lancashire is praised by the Liberal organs, who contrast its frank and positive tone with the vague negative utterances of D'Israeli. The Tory journals do not take up the no-Popery cry of the Premier, but rest the claims of their party in their Parliamentary canvass on the brilliant foreign policy of the Ministry, the success of the Abyssinian war, the necessity for the defense of the Church of England from the dangers by which it is menaced and the maintenance of strict economy and expenditures on the latter point, however sharply they are assailed by the Whigs, who point out the inconsistency between nthe precept and practices in the former.

The Chinese Embassy are making progress in their preliminary negotiations with the British Government.

It is reported that Mr. Burlingame finds that Lord Stanley is not unfriendly to the policy proposed by China, and that he is ready to treat the question on the broad grounds of civilization rather than from the purely English point of view urged by the London Times. It is understood the Embassadors will be received by the Queen on the 20th instant. After their reception by the Queen the Embassy will make a visit to Paris.

PARIS, October 11.—The reference to Schleswig made by the King of Denmark in his speech at the opening of the Reigstadt, induced semi-official journals here to declare the Prince is pledged to the treaty of Prague, and that Prussia must not depart from the obligations of that compact. The fears of the European war have abated; the press however say the armories of France were never busier than at present.

FUNERAL NOTICE.

FALLS—The friends and acquaintances of G. FALLS are respectfully invited to attend the funeral of his MOTHER, from his residence, corner of Jefferson street extended and Orleans, this (Monday) morning at 10 o'clock.

IN MEMORIAM.

STOCKTON—Passed away! Alas! our friend and comrade, GEORGE M. STOCKTON has gone, and sleeps now quietly and calmly beneath the shades of Elmwood, where, surrounded by those with whom he had braved the storms of battle, he awaits the assembly call which shall arouse the slumbering spirits of that beautiful city of the dead, and summon them to appear before the final tribunal.

On Friday evening last, his body was discovered floating in the river near the mouth of Wolf, and though sadly disfigured, was sorrowfully identified as that of our poor comrade, who so lately was among us, radiant in manly beauty. Mystery, with her impenetrable folds, conceals from us the cause and the manner of his untimely death, and the remembrance of his virtues forbids us to raise the veil which envelopes it.

High-toned, brave and generous to a fault, George was one of Nature's noblemen; and though in the very largeness of his genial nature he may have overstepped the limits of self-denial, he was a true gentleman, an earnest friend, a welcome companion; and of his high soldierly qualities, his comrades of the old 154th are willing witnesses. Those who witnessed the last sad ceremonies performed over his grave, and heard the simple but impressive words of the Rev. Dr. Rogers, can only remember his many virtues, while over his faults they will spread the mantle of charity. M.

MEMPHIS APPEAL.

Office---No. 13 Jefferson Street.

CITY MATTERS.

IN THE SECOND DISTRICT there were only five arrests up to six o'clock yesterday evening.

MR. SPIGHT, of Ripley, Tippah county, Miss., has our thanks for a jar of delightful honey syrup.

THE WEATHER yesterday was much warmer, and the skies were overcast, as if preparing for rain.

THE CHURCH OF THE B. V. M. was not quite so well attended as on the preceding Sundays, though there was still a very large congregation.

DR. FORD addressed a large congregation yesterday morning at the Tabernacle on the contrast between the teachings of the New Testament and the Ritualism of the Prayer Book.

FOR your reading matter call on our young friend Joe Locke, at Worsham's old stand, 236½ Main street. He has the latest monthlies, weeklies, dailies, stationery, etc.

THE WEEKLY APPEAL.—Our customers will find it to their interest to advertise in our mammoth weekly, circulating largely in Mississippi, Arkansas and West Tennessee.

OFFICER BARBIERE.—We learn that this efficient officer is considered in a very critical condition, indeed beyond all hope, from the wound inflicted on him a few nights ago by his brother-in-law—a man named Brown.

O. T. A. TALBERT, Esq., of San Francisco, California, has our thanks for a copy of a pamphlet, by Jno. G. McConnel, of Nevada City, entitled "The Crisis." It is an able review of the issues involved in the present political contest, and will have, no doubt, a powerful effect on the struggle in California.

PERSONAL.—We had the pleasure of a visit yesterday from Gen. Chalmers, who has just returned from a protracted trip North. He gives most enthusiastic and cheering accounts of the condition of affairs in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania, and is perfectly satisfied of our success in the coming struggle.

EUREKA BASE BALL CLUB.—Members of 1st Nine will meet at Court Square to-day (12th inst.), with uniform, at 1 o'clock p.m., precisely, and proceed in a body to the Race Track. The Holt, of Cincinnati, will play their grand match. Members are requested to be prompt. By order of Captain of the 1st Nine.

THE "Commercial Hotel," being the most convenient and best regulated hotel in the city, is doing a fine business. This house is fast becoming noted for its excellent fare and superior accommodations. Strangers visiting our city either for business or pleasure, will find it to their interest to call, where they can blend comfort and economy and feel at home.

LEFT THE STAGE.—Miss Julia Nelson, one of the most charming of our American actresses, was married on the 6th instant, at St. Bartholomew's Church, New York, to Judge Geo. W. Bond, of Mobile, Alabama. Judge Bond is quite a young man, but by talent and industry has already won quite an enviable position in the Mobile community, having been, for several years, Judge of Probate of Mobile county, and held several other posts of honor and emolument.

FROM WM. ROBERTSON, merchant, Napoleon, Ark., July, 1867.—Your Texas Tonic Syrup cures everybody of Chills and Fever without trouble, and but little expense. A few doses is all that is necessary to cure the worst cases, therefore no other medicines can be sold—formerly I sold large quantities of other medicines for chills, some of which done some good; but Texas Tonic Syrup is a sure thing, and does the work promptly. The sales of other medicines have almost ceased. For sale by all druggists.

COTTON FROM JACKSON.—An impression having obtained for some time past, among shippers of cotton at Jackson, Tenn., and in that region, that in shipping their cotton thence to Memphis it has to be transferred, Capt. W. J. Ross, General Superintendent of the Memphis and Charleston Railroad, has written a letter to the West Tennessee Whig, informing them that such is not the case. All cotton shipped from Jackson or any other station on the Mississippi Central road to Memphis, comes direct to Memphis without transfer or detention at Grand Junction.

SHOOTING AFFRAY.—A rough and tumble fight occurred a few days ago, between a couple of negro bruisers, named Sam. Gibbs and Wm Wesley, in which the latter got considerably the worst of the fight. Yesterday morning about 10 o'clock they met again on Causey street, near the corner of Pontotoc, and after a word or two had passed, Wesley drew a pistol and fired at Gibbs, the ball taking effect on him just below the collar bone, on the right side, making a painful, but not a dangerous wound. Wesley, after doing the shooting, "got up and dusted," but was captured by officers Mathews and Brandy, of the Second District, yesterday.

STARTLING REVELATIONS.

Capture of Another of the Gang Which Committed the Outrages upon Mr. Alexander—He Makes a Clean Breast of the Affair—The Negroes Organized and Armed to Rob and Murder All Conservatives—Terrible and Shocking Developments

Yesterday morning about 3 o'clock, detectives McCune and Hastings, with officers Welch, Holland, Smith and Gallagher, surrounded a house on Court street extended, in the rear of the Charleston Depot, and arrested a negro named Steven Torrence, alias "Twine," who was one of the gang who, some weeks ago, shot a Mr. Alexander, on the Pigeon Roost road, near Cane creek bridge, and set fire to his house. When the officers first obtained entrance to the house, the inmates (some fifteen or twenty negroes) persistently denied knowing anything about the party that they were in quest of; but a short search soon revealed him curled up under a trundle bed with a little negro boy on one side of him, a girl on the other. On being discovered, he stoutly averred that he was not the man they were looking for, but "another man altogether." Finding that they were determined to take him, any way, he at last admitted his identity, and on being carried to the station house made a clean confession of the whole affair, which, for the remarkable statements contained therein, we give in full. This confession proves the statements made and reiterated by the APPEAL, that the negroes in and around the city were armed and organized, in regular bands, to murder and plunder the white conservative citizens. It was made by the prisoner in the presence of this reporter, and Detective McCune, (others being present also), under no restraint whatever, and of his own free will.

"That night," (the night of the Alexander affair), "Doc. Woods called us together—five of us—and said we must go somewhere and get some meat. After we got out a piece on the Charleston road, one of the men said, 'let's get a calf and go back home.' Doc. Woods said, 'there's no use of having any foolishness about this thing. I come to get something, and am going to get it.' I and Aaron Gallagher started to go back, but Dock Woods said he was Captain, and he and Joe Webb and Jim Shaplin got mad, so we went on with them. When we got to Cane creek I said let's go to this man's house (Alexander's) and get some watermelons. Dock Woods said no—I came for money, I am going to his house for that—he has got plenty."

Question by Reporter.—"We were all armed. Dock Woods was the Captain. Aaron Gallagher had a gun, and the balance of us had pistols. Dock had always been at this thing. I had only been on one expedition like this before. This was my second trip.

"We went up to the house easily, and Dock Woods posted one of us on each side of the house, like regular sentinels. After doing this, he went to the door on a little porch and tried to shove it in, and called to the man to come out. He would not do it, and Doc left the door and went to the window by it, and as he did so the man put his gun out of the window and fired it off. Doc left this window then, and went to the sunrise side of the house (east), and picking up a sort of young tree, smashed in the window on that side. After he did this he told the man to come out, saying if he did not he would set the house afire and burn it up. The man reasoned and begged with him, but Doc took a bunch of dry fodder, fastened it on the end of a pole, set it afire and shoved it into the house. I did not like this, and hallood let's go and get some chickens, and leave this business. But they would not let me, and said we must have money, that's what we came for. After this I heard a gun fire, and I run into the house which they had already broken into. Aaron Gallagher had fired the gun, and the man (Mr. Alexander,) was lying on the floor bleeding. Aaron and Jim Shaplin had a trunk broken open and was going through it. Doc was hurrying them up, and when I came he cursed me and told me to go back. He said that that woman had gone to arouse the neighborhood. That was the first I had heard of a woman. With this I went out, and pretty soon they all came out and we hurried off home. I went to Arkansas the next day, and staid there awhile; then I came over on this side, and went down into Mississippi; but I did not have any rest. I had to come back."

Question by the Reporter—"We were regularly organized. The first principle was not to take anything away from, or harm Union men or colored people, but to get these rebels wherever we could. By rebels we mean these men that are working against Grant, and are going to vote against him. We believe that is the right way to break them all up. I am a Grant man, and I am going to vote for him. That way to serve the rebels is the only one to break them up."

It is proper to state that the prisoner thought that he was detailing this to Radicals, and that this candid confession of the motives, with his declaration of his intention to vote for Grant was sufficient palliation of the crime to secure his easy discharge.

Conservative men! Democrats! white men! are you prepared to meet these armed and drilled hordes of brutal, fiendish negroes, who are taught by their white leaders, black hearted, murdering scoundrels and thelves, of the Wm. J. Smith and the T. A. Hamilton stripe, that to rob and murder you, your wives and children, is not only no crime but a high and holy duty, that the negro owes to Grant and the Republican party? Voters of the North, and the East, and the West, are you prepared to cast your ballot for a man, the representative of a party, under whose banners, and by the teaching of whose high priests, such devilish, inhuman and outrageous means are resorted to to secure a political victory?

ALL ABOUT A DOG.

Almost a Riot—Thirty Shots Fired and Nobody Hurt.

The following, although the results were bloodless, serves to show the volcanic condition of society in our city, and how little it will take at some moment to plunge us into a bloody and frightful riot. The affair that we speak of was a riotous demonstration by negroes yesterday evening about four o'clock at the negro Methodist church on Gayoso street, near the bridge. The accounts of it, as detailed to us, are somewhat mixed, but are about as follows: A crowd of negro men were standing outside, waiting for church to turn out, when a dog came out and seated himself on the step. A negro remarked that the dog looked like a Democratic dog, and he intended to shoot him. Suiting the action to the word he drew a pistol and fired at the brute, missing him. The shot attracted several policemen to the spot, who found themselves vastly in the minority, all the negroes being armed, and retreated rapidly up the street, the negroes firing their pistols, and yelling like demons. One or two of the police in retiring, sang out "riot!" and, as our informant tells us, in a very few moments the streets were full of white men armed. The negroes, meanwhile, thinking there was likely to be warm work, in turn took to their heels, after firing about thirty shots. No arrests were made at the time, we believe, but later in the evening one or two were arrested for complicity in the affair. One thing was demonstrated, however, to the satisfaction of the negroes, and that is, the white people are thoroughly prepared, and if they (the negroes) spill one drop of blood, unjustifiably, they will be held to a fearful account for it.

THE LEGACY TO LEAVE.—A common sense man once gave this maxim for husbands; "What you leave at your death, let it be without controversy, else the lawyers will be your heirs." Upon which this comment is in place: "If you leave your money by a will, there will be a struggle between the heirs; lawyers will be employed; they will take all the money for their costs, and send in a little bill besides, and your friends will be worse off than ever. Even if harmony should prevail, it would take a long time to have your will proved, an exsutor appointed, and all the innumerable forms of the law complied with; and your poor wife might be sadly in want while she was waiting to receive what was her due." In view of these facts, even the richest men are now unwilling to rest easy without life policies. For this one reason alone, many take out assurance. Again, saying nothing of relief from perplexity or distress in the very presence of this calamity, what an advantage for a wife to have a small sum of ready money in order to the quickest and most economical settling up of the estate. Thousands of dollars have thus been saved by means of life policies. And the records of Surrogates' Courts will show that, on the other hand, thousands and tens of thousands of dollars have been lost, and estates utterly ruined, for the want of a small sum of ready money. Life assurance provides a remedy for all this; since a policy on the life of a husband, payable, as the law directs, to the wife and children, does not wait the law's delay, but comes up promptly to the rescue of the estate of the deceased. So, too, once more, has many a valuable business been sacrificed by the inability of a widow to wait until a fair price could be obtained, owing to ready money being required. A life policy in a solid institution like the New York Life Insurance Company would obviate all such contingencies, and it behooves every business man to go immediately to the agents, Messrs. McClure & Caskin, and take out a policy.

WEATHER AND RIVERS.

ST. LOUIS, October 11.—Arrived—Bee and Mississippi, New Orleans. Departed—Atlantic and barges Selma and Bismarck, New Orleans; Luminary, Natchez; City of Cairo, Memphis. River stationary.

CAIRO, October 11.—Down—Darling at 9 p.m. Era No. 10 at 6 a.m., City of Cairo at 4 p.m. Up—Argonaut No. 2 at 9 p.m., Jas Ila at 12 m.

MEMPHIS, October 12.—It remains clear and beautiful during the day, but the nights are foggy. The river at this point is steadily declining. We hear of raising rivers in a few directions, and in some, especially the Missouri and Illinois, sand bars are worse than before the rise. The Arkansas is again low. White river has but little over four feet to Jacksonport.

Arrivals.

Steamer Clifton, Cincinnati.
" Natoma, Friar's Point.
" Des Arc, White River.
" Liberty, White River.

Departures.

Steamer Mayflower, White River.

In Port.

Steamers Clifton, Natoma, Liberty, Des Arc.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The Clifton got in early yesterday, but was delayed on her trip by fog. The Rob Roy mail Club arrived on her and will play a match game at the Race track to-day. A large number of spectators will be present.

Dr. Acree's new boat, which was launched on Saturday, proves too narrow of beam, and will be taken out on the docks and reduced several feet, besides having some 20 feet in length added.

Capt. John B. Davis, Superintendent of the White river line, leaves to-day for Washington on business connected with the mail.

Capt. Mark Cheek's new ferry boat is a splendid steamer. She will soon be in readiness to receive her battery of boilers, and in a short time will be on the wing.

The fine steamer Clifton leaves on Tuesday for Cairo and Cincinnati. She is a good passenger steamer and makes all way landings. Mr. Hunter is her clerk.

The beautiful steamer Des Arc goes out to-day for Jacksonport and way points on White river. She will hereafter leave this port on Mondays instead of Tuesdays, as formerly. Capt. John Elliott is master, and Joe Elliott with Matt Glass are in the office.

The elegant belle Memphis, Capt. John Crane backs out to-day for Cairo and St. Louis. She connects at St. Louis with the White Collar line, and with the railroads for all points east. Billy Barker is chief secretary.

The H. M. Shreve, Capt. Carter, with Mr. Worsham in the office, passed up this morning for Cairo and St. Louis.

Thomas O'S. English, for years connected with the steamboat office of Larry Harmstad, embarks to-day, with faithful assistants, in the business of watching freights upon the levee and bluffs. Our steamboatmen and merchants all know "Tom," and will, we hope, patronize him.

The fine packet Ozark Capt. Pill Nowland will be in port to leave to-day for Little Rock and all way points on the Arkansas. She has excellent accommodations for passengers and Mr. Outlaw, her clerk, is a favorite with all.

Col. Robertson, Superintendent of the Memphis and Little Rock Railroad, left for the latter place yesterday on the Mayflower.

Capt. Wes. Connor, of the Legal Tender, left for White river on the Mayflower. He goes to see if some opening can't be made for his packet in the White river and New Orleans trade.

The Steamer Magenta, Capt. J. Frank Hicks

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL, MEMPHIS, October 10, 1868.

FINANCE.

There was not much doing in money circles to-day, outside the usual routine of Saturday's business. Checking and depositing went on with some more spirit, and arrangements were made for the payment of cotton to be purchased early in the coming week, or probably already bought and yet to be paid for. Currency comes in by evening trains, and Monday will find our banks fully fortified for the large which will then commence.

All cotton bills, on whatever point, are taken at ⅝c discount, which will no doubt be the ruling rate during the season. Selling at par.

Bonds and stocks are quiet, but there is some movement on foot which will, we think, give City Bonds an impetus. We are not posted as to the means by which this will be brought about, nor do we know the parties who are working the matter, but we are satisfied that as soon as money becomes easier, City Bonds will jump upward, and will pass the charmed 50s at which they now falter and cannot surmount.

City Scrip, or ledger balances, are in demand by tax payers, to whom the dreaded first of November does not seem far off—nor is it. Those who do not provide themselves before that date will regret the delay. We quote at 72@75c selling, with buying rates nominal.

County Warrants are steady. We quote large ones at 56@57c buying, while all under $50 are taken at 60c. Selling at 60@65c.

School Scrip is only in light request. Buying at 80c. Selling at 85c.

Police Scrip firm at 83c buying, selling at 85c.

Gold opened in New York at 136¾, and closed at 136¾c. Gold loans, 5¾%. Exchange higher, 9½@9⅝c. We could learn of no sales of gold in this market, except a few trifling sums, which were taken at 136@136¼c.

We find the following in the Cincinnati Gazette of the 8th inst.:

Some wild rumors were in circulation to-day about there having been defalcation discovered in some of the banks. We are authorized to state that these are untrue. The cashier of the Fourth National Bank, Charles H. Nash, Esq., has discounted some paper for personal friends without proper authority or security, through which losses are likely to accrue, but the bank has been secured, so that no loss will be suffered, and Mr. Nash has been allowed to resign. Some weeks ago the accounts of a clerk in the First National Bank were found to be short about three hundred dollars ($300), which is the only ground for a report regarding defalcation in that institution.

COTTON.

Cotton was tending upward in Liverpool at the opening to-day—Uplands, 10¾d; Orleans, 10⅝d—and at the close was quiet, but steady. Sales, 10,000 bales; Uplands, 10¾d; Orleans, 11d.

The New York market opened quiet, but steady. At noon it was a shade better, but not quotably higher. At 1 p.m. firm, with holders asking higher rates: Low Middlings 25¼c; Middlings, 26¼c; Orleans, 27c; Good Middlings, 28c. At the close low grades had advanced: Uplands, 26¼c. Week's receipts, 39,000 bales net; gross, 13,500 bales. Week's sales, 15,500 bales. Exports since September 1st, 11,355 bales. Receipts at all United States ports, 42,000 bales.

There was some inquiry during the day in this market, but not at prices satisfactory to sellers, who in several cases did not uncover their tables. Sales, however, were very fair, amounting to between 400 to 500 bales. The market closed firm. We quote a few sales as follows: 2 bales Low Ordinary, 19½c; 6 bales Ordinary at 20c; 22 do Good Ordinary, 21½c; 8 at 21¾c, 8 at 22c, 2 at 21¾c, 5 at 21¾c, 1 at 21¼c; 6 Low Middlings at 21¾c, 1 at 22c, 3 at 21¾c, 4 at 21¾c, 4 at 22¾c, 60 at 22c, 9 at 21¾c, 4 at 22c, 41 at 22¼c, 66 at 2 c, 18 at 22¾c, 78 at 22c; 5 Middlings at 22¾c, 5 at 22½c, 18 at 22½c, 18 at 23c, 17 at 23c, 2 at 22¾c, 80 at 23c, 3 at 22½c; 90 Shy Middlings at 23½c.

TRADE.

This has been about as quiet a day as we ever remember to have seen for the closing day of the week in Memphis. The non-arrival of steamers from above, delayed by the heavy smoke which prevailed last night, was sensibly felt by nearly every branch of trade. The lines on all are out of meats. We are assured that, never in the past thirteen years has our meat market, or, in fact, stocks of all kinds of plantation supplies, been so low as now. The advance above has deterred many of our merchants from buying as heavily as is their custom at this season of the year, and it is not at all probable that large purchases will be made before the new hog crop comes in. While our supply of provisions runs very light, the feed market has come to a stand still for want of supplies. A consignment of prime white corn would sell readily on the levee at $1 65 to-day. Hay is scarce and held in store at our outside quotations. The flour market is very dull and tends to lower prices. The dry goods trade for the week has been active, at firm prices, while boots and shoes are also firm, and the trade has been very good indeed.

Of the grain shipped East from Chicago for the year ending March 31, 1868, but a small part went by rail. The whole amount, estimating a barrel of flour as equivalent to four bushels of grain, was 32,798,161 bushels. Of this only 8,733,298 were moved by rail, leaving a balance of 24,064,863 that was shipped by water, via the lakes to Buffalo and other ports.

The assessor's returns to the Common Council of Chicago place the assessed valuation of real and personal property in that city at $228,444,879, being an increase over that of last year of $38,190,285. The total amount of this year's levy is fourteen mills.

The New York Herald, after remarking that within a year from this time it expects to see the Union Pacific Railroad completed from the Mississippi to San Francisco, goes on to say: It is not easy, within the compass of ordinary language, to say what the results of this road will be to the commerce and general prosperity of the whole country. Possibly the first result will be to open a stream of emigration from the superfluous millions of China and Japan. Immigration from these countries now is confined to the Pacific coast, and the disaster of foreign enterprise from Asia is limited to California and Oregon. But what will it be when the Pacific Railroad opens up the whole heart of the country to the labor and industry of these populous Eastern nations? It is safe to calculate that laborers from China will come over by tens of thousands, and swarm into the valley of the Mississippi, spread themselves over the plains, and work their way to the Southern States, there to supply the place of colored labor, which, owing to the present system of miscalled reconstruction, is not available for half its nominal value. It is just this kind of immigration that the South requires to develop its neglected wealth.

WOLFE'S

Schiedam Schnapps.

THE above Medicinal Beverage is manufactured by the proprietor, at his distillery, in Schiedam, Holland, expressly for medicinal use.

It is now some twenty years since the proprietor first introduced it to the American public, and during that time he has received over three thousand letters from physicians, indorsing it as the purest liquor they have ever used in their practice.

It is made from barley of the finest quality, selected with great care from the products of the most celebrated grain-growing districts, is flavored with the essence of the aromatic juniper-berry of Italy, and is rectified by a peculiar process, which expels from the spirit every acrid particle.

As a means of preventing and correcting the disagreeable and often dangerous effect produced upon the stomach and bowels by a change of water—a visitation to which travelers, new settlers, and all unacclimated persons in the West, the South, and Southwest are peculiarly liable—the SCHIEDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS will be found absolutely infallible; while in cases of dropsy, gravel, obstructions of the kidneys, disease of the bladder, stricture, dyspepsia and general debility, it is recommended most emphatically by the most distinguished members of the medical profession. It is put up in quart and pint bottles, in cases, with the name of the undersigned on the bottle and cork, and a fac-simile of the signature on the label. For sale by all respectable druggists and country merchants.
